ANTITRUST POLICY STATEMENT FOR SPRAY POLYURETHANE FOAM ALLIANCE MEETINGS

- It is and shall remain the policy of the Spray Polyurethane Foam Alliance (“SPFA”), and it is the continuing responsibility of every SPFA member company, SPFA meeting or event participant, as well as SPFA staff and leadership to comply in all respects with federal and state antitrust laws. No activity or discussion at any SPFA meeting or other function may be engaged in for the purpose of bringing about any understanding or agreement among members to (1) raise, lower or stabilize prices; (2) regulate production; (3) allocate markets; (4) encourage boycotts; (5) foster unfair or deceptive trade practices; (6) assist in monopolization; or (7) in any way violate or give the appearance of violating federal or state antitrust laws.

- Any concerns or questions regarding the meaning or applicability of this policy, as well as any concerns regarding activities or discussions at SPFA meetings should be promptly brought to the attention of SPFA’s Executive Director and/or its legal counsel.

Repeal Obamacare and Enact Tax Reform using “Reconciliation”

- To repeal Obamacare and Enact Tax Reform:
  - Republicans must pass budgets first

- Passing a budget allows a procedure called reconciliation
  - Permits the Senate to bypass the 60-vote filibuster threshold

- Budget must include a line item that:
  - Instructs committees to change law to reconcile with budget

- Had to pass two budgets
  - FY17 for Obamacare; FY18 for Tax Reform
House passed American Health Care Act on May 4, 2017
- Repealed tax penalties tied to individual/employer mandates
- Replaced ACA's subsidies with new tax credits
- Eliminated ACA's tax increases
- Created state waiver program for essential benefits
- Restructured the Medicaid program saving $900b

Medicaid savings is why healthcare preceded tax reform

Senate failed to pass bill by Oct. 1 reconciliation deadline
